Juniors AP Winter writing workshop Georgia said, 'First we made up some stories from characters he gave us and acted them out. He talked about his other jobs as well as being an author and he asked us if we would like to be an author. I said I would like to be an author. Ryan said 'He showed us a picture and we had to guess which book it was from. Ollie and Liv bought his book and have started reading it. Ollie said 'It's a really good book because he puts lots of magic in it which makes it really interesting.' Liv said 'I also think it is really good because I haven't read another story like it.'

Think before you act workshop: Two Magistrates came into school to work with the Juniors. Elisabeth and Lewis said 'We learnt about the different stages of going to court. We got to be magistrates on a case and decide the punishment. There were 3 possible types of punishment. Five groups issued a Youth rehabilitation order and two groups decided to send the teenager to prison.'
