English – Capital Letters

Think about when we use capital letters: at beginning of sentences and for proper nouns (specific nouns and names such as York and Joe.)

Watch and complete the, Nouns and Capital Letters, video and activity on the BBC Bitesize website to support your understanding. The link is below.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zvgg4qt/articles/zq6nw6f>

Write a sentences for each word below. Consider where you need to use a capital letter in each sentence and whether you need a capital letter for each word (I have written all words without capital letters so be careful!)

1. rabbit
2. henry
3. slippers
4. chocolate
5. red
6. melissa
7. london

Parent Expectations

Check that they have used capital letters correctly in each sentence.
