English – Letter Writing

Today we are going to write a letter to the Giant. You are going to imagine that you are Jack and that you are writing to say sorry for taking his hen and harp. In your letter you need to say sorry and you might also want to explain why you took the things in the first place. You may want to ask the Giant to be your friend at the end?

Read the example letter attached to give you some ideas on what to write and if you are struggling to get started then 'borrow' some ideas from the example.

There is a letter template if you wish to use it, but it may be easier to write it out into your book or onto paper.

As always refer to your writing check list to see expectations.

Phonics - Go onto Discovery Education and type in Phonics. Start with Phase 5 Sal's Phonics and the 's' (st/se) video and then complete one of the activities.
