School News

It was good to welcome back Mr Kelly on Wednesday. Mrs Hugill is still recovering so admin queries, especially ParentPay may be slower than usual, apologies.

School Day

Being able to start learning at 9am is having a big impact on pupils' work so thank you for being punctual. Gates close at 8.55am.

Collecting your children—important note

We have had a couple of incidences recently where we have not been informed that alternative adults are collecting children. In order to safeguard everyone, we will not release children to anyone we have not received notification about. Thank you for your support.

Stay and Play sessions

Our final Stay and Play session is in the afternoon on 2 December, 1.15 pm-3.00 pm.

Applications for Reception for 09/22 now open. Apply using the following link. <https://www.northyorks.gov.uk/apply-place-primary-or-secondary-school> The deadline is 15th January 2022.

Y3/4 Dodgeball

We sent 12 children off to Ryedale today for their Dodgeball competition; results in next week's newsletter.

Christmas Tree Festival— our decorations

As part of our work with the Richard Shephard Foundation and SingEducation, the children made decoration for the tree which is now on display. More details on the festival can be found via the following link: The York Minster Christmas Tree Festival | York Minster and you can vote here: Vote for your favourite tree | York Minster
